Custom Heat-Transfer Vinyl & Tie-Dye Apparel, Made By Hand

ABOUT

Elise Marion is the founder and sole maker behind Blondie Slays Apparel, a custom apparel studio based in Sarnia, Ontario. Every piece — from one-off custom tees to full team orders — is designed, pressed, and shipped by hand, with a signature hand-dyed tie-dye line that has become the brand's most-requested product. Elise also builds and maintains the brand's own website, including an interactive online tee-builder that lets customers design their own piece before ordering.

WHAT I MAKE

- Custom heat-transfer vinyl tees, hoodies, crewnecks, tanks & more
- Hand-dyed tie-dye — small batches, no two pieces alike
- Team & bulk merch orders (from one-offs up to 25+ pieces)
- Fully custom design requests, from concept to finished piece
- 48-hour turnaround on most orders, shipped across Canada

WHY PARTNER WITH ME

Cutting vinyl is a daily, hands-on part of how this business runs — not an occasional craft project. My audience is Canadian small-business owners, crafters, and shoppers looking for custom or gifted apparel: exactly the people already looking for tools like yours. I write and photograph my own process, so any partnership comes with genuine, first-hand content, not a one-off sponsored post.
